

Zombie Hunt! Live! (Zombies!!! 4 scenario)

Welcome to the new TV show!

Our lucky contestants will enter the Black Wood to fight our zombie dogs and win our Very Big Prize!

They'll be armed with brand-new "Exorcist" guns and powerful spells from the Book of the Dead (provided by our Sponsor "Romero-Raimi Press").

But don't worry, if one of our contestants is in real danger our security team will return him or her to the starting point with just a little penalty (all the items and half the zombies, as usual). The only blood you'll see will be green!

No evil book, no witch in the woods... This is real! This is Live!

After a short message from our sponsors the Hunt Will Begin!!!

OBJECTIVE

The first player to collect 10 point will win the game (more or less points for a longer or shorter game).

SPECIAL RULES

Use Z4 tiles and cards as usual.

Every dog is worth 1 point. If you lose the dog from your collection (i.e., when you lose your last heart token) you lose the point.

Every Book of the Dead Page placed in front of you is worth 2 points. If it's used or you lose it any other way, you lose the points.

The first player to reach the Cabin, get rid of any dog inside (there must be no dog inside the building) and say "Wow! This new guns really work! I'll buy one as soon I'll get out of here!" is awarded with 5 points.
